

2025 ATATÜRK INTERNATIONAL PEACE PRIZE

PRESS RELEASE

Atatürk International Peace Prize, a State Prize awarded to real and legal persons serving the promotion of world peace, international friendship and goodwill in line with Atatürk's principle "Peace at Home, Peace in the World," will be awarded in 2025 according to the 27th article of the Statutory Decree no. 664 on the Organization and Duties of Atatürk Supreme Council for Culture, Language and History.

Real and legal persons listed below are eligible to nominate candidates for the Prize in accordance with the principles specified by the Regulation on Atatürk International Peace Prize and the Prize Committee.

Real and Legal Persons Eligible to Nominate Candidates

The President of Republic of Türkiye, Speaker of the Grand National Assembly of Türkiye, Secretary-General of the United Nations, Secretary General of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation, Turkish National Commission for UNESCO, Chiefs of Diplomatic Missions in Türkiye, University Senates in Türkiye, Organization of Turkic States, Turkish Academy of Sciences (TÜBA), The Scientific and Technological Research Council of Türkiye (TÜBİTAK), institutions and individuals awarded the Atatürk International Peace Prize and Members of the Prize Committee are eligible to nominate candidates.

Principles

Real and legal persons who are eligible to nominate candidates must prepare a report on the works, services and activities of the candidate and clearly state the grounds for nomination. Evaluation of applications and designation of candidates are to be made according to the following principles:

1. The candidates are required to have served the promotion of world peace, international friendship and goodwill in line with Atatürk's principle "Peace at Home, Peace in the World."
2. In designating the owner of the Peace Prize, no one shall be discriminated against on the basis of race, language, color, gender, nationality or other reasons.
3. Owner of the Peace Prize shall be awarded a plaque, a rosette, a certificate and prize money.
4. If the work, service or activity that is deemed worthy of the Peace Prize is a product of more than one person, each one of them shall be awarded a plaque, a rosette and a certificate while the prize money shall be shared among them equally.

Application and Nomination

Real and legal persons eligible to nominate candidates are invited to apply by filling out the Nomination Form and submit the Form via e-mail to aubo@ayk.gov.tr or by post to Atatürk Supreme Council for Culture, Language and History, Scientific Studies Coordination Department till July 1st 2025.

More information on the issue can be obtained from the website of Atatürk Supreme Council for Culture, Language and History www.ayk.gov.tr

Address : Atatürk Kültür, Dil ve Tarih Yüksek Kurumu Yerleşkesi
Üniversiteler mah. Toplum cad. No.:5 06800 Çankaya / ANKARA, TÜRKİYE

Telephone : +90 0312 285 55 12

E-mail : aubo@ayk.gov.tr